

National Tropical Botanical Garden presents

Climate Crisis Forum #1: Waste Reduction and Climate Change

In the first in a series of four public forums on the climate crisis, community leaders and representatives of local organizations will discuss the connections between waste and climate change and how our community can work together to reduce waste. Learn how we can build a healthier, more resilient Kauai that can flourish in the face of climate change and environmental challenges.

The forum will include interactive presentations and “speed dating” talks with panelists from participating organizations including: County of Kauai, Office of Economic Opportunity/Aloha+ Challenge, Kauai Community College, County of Kauai Solid Waste Division, Zero Waste Kauai, Surfrider Foundation, Leadership Kauai, Apollo Kauai and National Tropical Botanical Garden

Wednesday, February 19, 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Light refreshments and water will be provided for attendees who are asked to bring refillable water bottles.

SAVE THE DATES: Health and Climate Change (April 15), Coastal Flooding and Infrastructure (June 17), and Food Security and Farming (August 19)
