

Keiki o Ka Aina

Nature Adventure Camp in the Lawai Valley

The goal of Keiki o Ka Aina is to teach children about the importance of plants in their lives and Hawaiian culture through outdoor recreation that includes nature activities, environmental games, and garden exploration.

These camps, in conjunction with Cognitive Learning Center of Kauai Community College, provide a wide range of outdoor activities which take place in NTBG's South Shore Gardens: McBryde Garden and Allerton Garden

Register Online:
ntbg.org/education/k12

2022 Sessions:

June 28 - July 1 &
July 5 - 8

Please Register for only one session.

Ages: children entering 3 - 5 grades

Registration opens May 25. Are you a garden member? Get early access to registration starting May 18.

Camp Fee:

$200 per child - General Public

$150 per child - Garden Members

Location:

NTBG Headquarters Campus at:
3530 Papalina Road, Kalaheo

You must accompany your child to daily sign-in, check-out

For Information:

Contact: Education Office
(808)332-7324 ext. 204

Email: education@ntbg.org